

Pakachoag Music School Selects New Advisory Board

Email to a friend Permalink

Wednesday, November 18, 2015

GoLocalWorcester Lifestyle Team

Pakachoag Music School elected its new advisory board members at its recent annual meeting. The advisory board supports the mission of Pakachoag through collaborative efforts with the professional staff in the areas of ambassadorship and advocacy, consulting, community awareness and resource development.

The board members are:

- Adrien Finlay, Executive Director, Music Worcester
- Gail Morgan, former President of Morgan-Worcester, Inc, and former manager and board member of Morgan Construction Company.
- Alison Snyder, retired teacher and former Pakachoag parent (of Sutton)

Members of the school's advisory board that have been renewed include:

- Patti Verderese, Chair
- Randy Bloom
- Catherine Z. Collins
- Meg Gallo
- Barbara Granger
- Kallin Johnson
- Paul Jourcin
- Martha Pappas

Board officers are also elected:

- President, Donelle Wright, Director, Global Sales Human Resources, EMC Corp. (of Northborough)
- Vice President, Guy LeDuc, National Director of Development, Straight Ahead Ministries (of Shrewsbury)
- Clerk, Dr. Karen Way, Chiropractic physician (of Rutland)

Pakachoag Music School of Greater Worcester

The Pakachoag Music School was founded in 1982 and is a community school for the arts. Every year, the school brings in hundreds of students from across Central Massachusetts, Northern Connecticut and Rhode Island.

Donelle Wright, President of Board of Directors