
Northborough resident elected into Pakachoag Music School board

COMMENT

0

Posted Nov. 18, 2015 at 11:00 PM

NORTHBOROUGH — Donelle Wright was elected as president of the board of directors at the Pakachoag Music School at the school's annual meeting.

Other board officers elected included Guy LeDuc, as vice president, and Dr. Karen Way, as clerk.

New advisory board members include Randy Bloom, Catherine Z. Collins, Adrien Finlay, Meg

Gallo, Barbara Granger, Kallin Johnson, Paul Jourcin, Gail Morgan, Alison Snyder, Martha Pappas and Patti Verderese.

The school's advisory board supports the mission of Pakachoag through collaborative efforts with the professional staff in the areas of ambassadorship and advocacy, consulting, community awareness and resource development.
